

Language activities organised by the LECA (Language Extra Curricular Activities)

The LECA (Language Extra Curricular Activities) is run by the ESUK PTA (Parent Teacher Association). The current volunteer administrator is Olga Borymchuk.

If you would like to run a language club, please discuss possibilities with the LECA admin.

All LECA teachers are native level speakers.

MONDAY, 3.45-4.45 pm

Russian Intermediate (Year 1 - Year 5)

The after school language lessons are led by Tanya Robinson and focus on building of fluency in speaking and confident beginner reading skills through the format of learning games and project activities.

Places available: 6

TUESDAY, 3.45-4.45 pm

Arabic Mixed Abilities (Year 1 - Year 3)

Arabic fun lessons are led by Amani Habib. The course focuses on the spoken Arabic as well as basic reading and writing. Arabic language skills are currently in very high demand and can lead to wide range of careers; our classes are fun, enjoyable, relaxing after a long school day, yet a challenge to learn a non-European language & open eyes to another culture!
