Year 4 got creative this week, making Dragon's eyes in clay.

4FE have made Rangoli patterns - an art form from the Indian sub continent, in which patterns are created on the floor using coloured rice powder. They are made during Diwali and Hindu festivals. In maths, Rangoli patterns are a creative way to discover symmetry, reflection and tessellation.

PTA: St Martin's Day ONLINE - Competition Entries Open Today!

Children have been learning about St Martin and those who have been in school should have brought home the lantern that they have made. The four St Martin's competitions are open for entries from today (best lantern, St Martin's drawing, most delicious looking Weckmann and best performance). Visit www.europa-pta.org/stmartins2020 for more information about how you can get involved!

Wishing you all a restful half-term

Below - The tree in the Secondary Schol quad was in magnificent colour this week.

A few reminders.....

Illness - Please continue to inform us if your child or a household member becomes unwell. It is important for us to continue to monitor potential risks to the school community.

School photographs - Deadline to order is 26 Oct. There is an additional charge if you order after the deadline. There are some sibling photos that haven't been collected from reception.

Trip contribution - This a reminder for the £60.00 trip contribution. We are busy organising additional, enriching events for your children. After half term, Year 2 will visit science Oxford.

Canteen accounts - Please keep your child's canteen account in credit at all times.

More flowers please? The PTA want to buy some plants to cheer up the site this winter. All donations much appreciated via virginmoneygiving.com/fund/gardening. To donate plants contact Kate Lloyd-Williams.
