Masks

Here are just a small selection of Christina's "home made" masks. The children love her creations each morning and afternoon. Thanks to Christina for doing a fantastic job in the car park and making us all smile behind our masks. If you can spare 15 minutes on any afternoon, from 3.10pm to help Christina spot parking spaces, please do volunteer to her directly.

Crisis

Polite reminder for the voluntary annual £60.00 trip contribution!

We are collecting again this year for Crisis Oxford Christmas Appeal. This year it is especially important due to the Pandemic. Their wishlist is here. Donations to either reception throughout the week or in person Fri 11th Dec 8:30 -10am at the Thame Lane entrance. Thank you.

St Nicholas celebrations in RDE

RDE talked about the St Nicholas celebrations in the Netherlands. The children learned who St Nicholas was and how some children receive gifts from him on December 5th or 6th in their shoe! They all made a paper shoe and St Nicholas left them a little treat each.

Primary Maths Challenge -Many congratulations to everyone who participated in the Primary Maths Challenge! A huge well-done to our gold certificate winners: Luc D., Anna M., James K., Emilia S., Shailaditya T and Jonathan J. (who achieved the highest mark). Certificates to follow. Frau Havenstein

Breckon & Breckon have again kindly sponsored the 4m Christmas tree at the Thame Lane entrance. A huge thank you to them and to the PTA for organising this for the school and for the beautiful decorations and lights.
