

Europa School UK Primary Newsletter

24 - 28 September 2018

Current News

European day of Languages - Children are invited to dress up in a costume from the country of their choice on Tuesday 25th and Wednesday 26th September. You are invited to make a £1 donation which will go to our partner school and orphanage in Zambia.

Canteen YR3-6 Please ensure that your child's account is sufficiently topped-up. You will receive email warnings of low balance and debit up to £5. When the account has no credit the canteen can no longer serve your child. PLEASE take note of the emails and provide a packed lunch if needed.

Bus Service Rec, YR1, YR2, YR3. - Changes to the bus routine requires 24 hours notice. Please use the form below to inform us of any changes. <https://goo.gl/forms/OUvEoGTUR2KeNAJ12>

After School Activities "ASA" - Invoices have been sent out. Please contact activities@europaschool.uk if you haven't received it. We would like to welcome Georgi Neville to the team as ASA co-ordinator.

School Trip Contributions - A letter has been sent out. Please let us know if you haven't received it.

FREE Family Fun day - Cornerstone, Didcot are celebrating their 10th Birthday. Join them for a free day of fun activities and celebrations for all the family from 10am - 4pm.

Europa Cricket. A group of Europa parents who enjoy cricket are keen to connect with any other cricket fans at the school. We're interested in playing some occasional social indoor cricket over the winter, and discussing the possibility of forming a Europa students' team in the future. If you're interested please get in touch with Simon (07972 838620) or Rajiv (07387 274679). Thanks!
