

Secondary Newsletter

21 January - 25 January 2019

Current news

Paul Mellon Centre Write on Art competition:

deadline 31 January. S4- S7

New houses in Culham: - check what is happening and comment on the local plan. Click here for the link.

Page 52 of the local plan: "Land within the strategic allocation adjacent to Culham Science Centre, will be developed to deliver approximately 3,500 new homes, with approximately 1,850 homes within the plan period, a net increase of 7.3 hectares of employment land in combination with the adjacent Science Centre, 3 pitches for Gypsies and Travellers and supporting services and facilities."

Please support the school by informing the authorities about your experiences in travelling to and from the school.

Volunteers needed - to run 45 min homework club for primary children after school. Day is flexible. Please contact d.correia@europaschool.uk for info.

Unuhi Competition

Over 45 pupils took part in the story competition we organised with Unuhi, the children's bilingual book app. (Unuhi.com).

In French, Italian or Spanish, the stories from primary and secondary pupils are funny, sad or just very well written. Some even came with beautiful illustrations. Such talents in the school!

Congratulations to Kseniya, S3b with her story "Where is Lono/ Mais ou est Lono?". Her story will now be published online in 20 languages!

Click here for a sample of the stories with, of course,

ESUK in the news

We have added a number of news items to our website including a "in the news" tile, please have a look: <https://europaschooluk.org/why-our-school/news/>

We would like to thank our MP John Howell for his continued support of our school.

Young Art Oxford

This is a call for anyone wishing to participate in this Oxfordshire-wide art competition. The competition is open for years Reception to Year 9. This year's topic is 'Home'. Please read the rules on the Young Art Oxford website before your child starts drawing. Please submit your pictures to reception by 15 February (no late submissions can be accepted and pictures can only be submitted via the School). Name, School Year and School must be clearly marked in block capitals on the back of each entry. The entry fee of £2 in cash also needs to be attached.

Dr Daniela Havenstein

The S2D class had a "Schreibgespräch" ("writing-conversation") this Thursday and Friday about the topic "Mut bedeutet für mich.." ("Courage means to me.."). During the work process the students were only writing and not speaking to each other and it worked out very well. The results were presented by each group in class and showed a wonderful collection of different aspects of courage, like standing up for others and yourself, to do or try out things that are new to you, to overcome your fears - to name just a few of them.

Dates for your diary

19 Jan - return from Model United Nations

This week

Sunday 20 January - ESUK girls team Volleyball competition against Oxford volleyball club - sport hall

21 Jan - S5 Parent Evening 17.00 - 20.00

22 Jan - S5&S6 Careers Fest

23 Jan P2 - S5 students option meeting in Drama studio

Future dates

30 Jan - S6 Parent Evening 17.00 - 20.00

31 Jan - deadline NCH Essay competition

31 Jan 19.30 - S5 Parent meeting re Choices Schuman Hall

4 February - S4 Parent evening 17.00-20.00

7 February - Intermediate Maths Challenge;

7 February S3 Immunisations: TdP/Men ACWY

9 February - Basketball Inter year Competition

Contacts & links

General enquiries: reception@europaschool.uk 01235 524060

Parent portal: <https://mis.europaschooluk.org>