Model European Council

The Model European Council (MEC) Programme is a yearly political simulation organised by the European Schools.

It is an enormous and very complex role-play. The European Commission - with support from the real Commission - prepares the proposals before the summit of the Council. The teams taking on the roles of ministers and heads of state then debate these proposals and decide upon them. The topics on the agenda are always the same issues the EU is currently working on.

This year we were kindly hosted by the European Central Bank in Frankfurt. Our delegates from year S6 represented two countries Hungary (Lily-Mae, Daniel, Carmen, Anna and Molly) and Portugal (Ines, Nathalie, Maya, Saskia and Josephine).

I commend them for their excellent contributions and performance at the conference.

March for a people's vote

On Saturday the 23rd of March we joined the march for a People's Vote in London. We were early, so we sat on a wall with our signs and started chanting.

That's when it all began. Several people started taking pictures of us, and some people with big cameras joined them. Minutes later we were surrounded by photographers.

When they asked, we told them that we wanted to save the European Baccalaureate, and thus our future. We were there to make our voices heard!

And we achieved literally that: 10 minutes later, we were pictured in the Independent, the Guardian, the Daily Mail, die Süddeutsche Zeitung, and the New York Times, and later we heard ourselves chanting on Channel 4 News, the BBC, and even German children's news!

A million people turned up that day, but we were also chanting for the school, for our friends, and for everyone who couldn't come. Now we just hope that the politicians will listen! Rosie, Kiana & Elin S1D
