"The S4 - L3 Spanish students had an exciting outing this week when they visited Radley College to watch a play performed entirely in Spanish by the Onatti Theatre Company. The play, titled "Reserva Duplicada," revolves around the comedic chaos that ensues when two couples accidentally book the same Airbnb. The resulting misunderstandings and humorous situations kept the audience thoroughly entertained.

The students found the play both enjoyable and educational, as it provided an excellent opportunity to immerse themselves in the Spanish language outside the classroom setting.

Additionally, there was a collective sigh of relief among the students when they realised they wouldn't be called up on stage to participate!"

VOLUNTEER NEEDED FOR DUKE OF EDINBURGH AWARD

We are looking for a volunteer or two to help support The Duke of Edinburgh Award.

We need a Verifier to help sign off the final awards. This person needs to be working at Europa School but not involved in delivering the award at the school. This will involve initially taking a couple of short courses and then once qualified, checking the final submission of the participants award to confirm it reaches the requirements.

Further information can be found here

or email dofe@europaschol.uk if you have any further questions.

Once the training courses have been completed it shouldn't be too time intensive as we usually have on average 2 or 3 awards completed each week.
