Win 10 Magical Merlin tickets for your school

I wanted to let you know about Perform's musical, Magical Merlin, running at The Fortune Theatre in Covent Garden from 24-30th October, during October half-term.

With an amazing cast - Magical Merlin is packed with fun and laughter and written for Primary School aged children and their families. It also makes a great introduction to West End theatre for younger children and a lovely half-term treat.

We're currently working on spreading the word and as a school we visit, I wondered if you could share the information and the following link with your children:
<https://www.perform.org.uk/about-perform/what-we-offer/magicalmerlin>

If you are able to do this and email me to let me know, I can place your school in a special prize draw and 5 schools will be picked on 1st October to win 10 free tickets

Thank you in advance for any help you can give us and I hope you have a great week.

With best wishes,

Abby Restall
