Multilingual Book Week in Pictures

Our Multilingual book week has been a feast of reading activities. Across the primary school, children have shared, discovered and discussed books from around the world.

Staff introduced their favourite books during World book day assemblies and as always the dressing up was fabulous. Thank you everyone for making the week a literary treat.

THANK YOU

Thank you for all the class contributions that were made in connection with our Multilingual Book Week. Also, the PTA made £300 on the book sale which is excellent. Thank you for all your efforts.

Europa School UK

Your Local International School

Europa School UK was delighted and honoured to welcome the German Ambassador, Miguel Berger, and the Head of Culture and Education, Dr Frane, from the German Embassy in London. Our guests had a tour around the school which included visits to Primary classrooms where our younger pupils shone in performances of song and rhyme. Our panel of secondary students impressed with presentations on aspects of school life and with their ability to showcase our immersive language stream model. Musical interludes revealed the stunning talents comprised within the school community. It was an inspirational visit and we would like to pass on our heartfelt thanks to the Embassy for giving us this opportunity.

NEWS FROM THE ECO CLUB

This week, the eco club chose its new logo. Thank you to Roman Arnold, 3FE, who kindly designed it for us! We love it!

There are many different projects which are being undertaken across classes to help the school become greener:

- Biodiversity: creation of animal houses and feeders, planting wildflowers
- Marine: Reduce the use of single use plastics, raising awareness around plastic pollution and the impact on our oceans
- Litter: creating anti-litter posters

If you would like to know more or would like to help, contact s.harries@europaschool.uk

The eco club has started a project on plastic in the oceans. Take the quiz with your family. How many of these questions can you answer correctly?

THANK YOU

Thank you to the parents, children and staff who came together and organised a cake sale to raise funds for Turkey and Syria. It was an emotional cause and touched the hearts of our community. They raised over £1000 which was amazing.
