Oxfordshire Youth Maths Conference

Six S5 students attended the inaugural Oxfordshire Youth Maths Conference, held at Oxford High School, on Monday 13th.

The theme of the day was "The Art of the Chart" and the students (and accompanying teacher!) were treated to a variety of short talks about charts or graphs which changed the world in some way.

Our students contributed to the day by creating posters to display on the same theme.

It was interesting to see the breadth of material covered, and how data presentation can be used for good and ill.
